SHOW WILLIMANTIC MEN WHAT ROTARY IS

With nine guests present from Willimantic, representing the leading business interests of the Thread City, and a large delegation from the Rotary club of New London, the Norwich Rotarians held a spirited session at the weekly noonday luncheon held at the Wauregan house on Wednesday. The object of the meeting was to interest the leading business men of Willimantic in the ideals and principles of Rotary with the prospect of establishing a club in the Thread City.

The meeting opened with the singing of America, after which there were selections by the Rotary quartette—Eben Learner, John E. Vaughn, Louis A. Wheeler and Henry J. Fontaine. The selection given was Hawatha's Melody of Love, and they responded with an encore. Frank J. Murry, manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, who was the guest of T. C. Murphy at the luncheon, rendered two solos, King of the Winds and Dear Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?

Henry J. Fontaine also rendered a solo, Mother of Mine, and he, like the other soloists, was warmly applauded. Mr. Murry and Mr. Fontaine sang Because You Are You, and Mr. Murry for an encore rendered Kitty O'Toole.

General James Hammond of the New London club was unanimously appointed speaker of the meeting and with his resonant voice led in the club singing. At the session that followed the luncheon President Joseph C. Worth read a letter of greeting from Charles A. Saxton, who is now in Greenboro, N. C., and also a letter from Forrest J. Perkins of the national Rotary board urging all Rotary clubs to endorse the stand of Herbert Hoover in the European relief project. President Worth introduced Mr. Hammond as the first speaker of the afternoon. Mr. Hammond in his usual eloquent manner, the proceedings of the New London club and went on to tell what Rotary stands for. He said Rotary began 15 years ago over a handshake and a smile and that during the past 15 years has grown so that it now encircles the world. This was shown at the last convention of International Rotary, held at Atlantic City, when delegates from practically all corners of the world were present.
